THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 AND 794, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The University Medical School at Targu-Mures is officially called Bolyai Tudomanyegyetem Ful-Orr-Torok-Es Gegeklínikája [University of Targu-Mures, Ear, Nose, Throat and Larynx Clinic]. It bears the name of Professor Bolyai, a pre-World War II Hungarian mathematician and physicist, who apparently has been consecrated by the Communist hierarchy.

2. It now [1954] occupies the site and buildings of the former Rumanian Military School known as Scoala Militara. The campus is located on the outskirts of the town.

3. [redacted] some rivalry has developed between the University of Targu-Mures and the medical school at Cluj, Rumania. These two institutions, independent of each other, are representative of two ethnic segments of thought. [redacted] all instruction at Targu-Mures is conducted in the Hungarian language, while all instruction at Cluj is conducted in the Rumanian language. Further, most of the medical staff at Targu-Mures are, by language, derivation and education, Hungarians. This segment of Rumania had previously belonged to Hungary. Consequently some friction may exist because of nationalistic differences.

4. The facilities and appurtenances are not of the same quality as the University of Cluj, and [redacted] they lack the necessary
